DETAILED ACTION

1. The request for reconsideration of 15 August 2006 has been considered and made of record.
2. Claims 9-17 have been presented for examination.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments, see page 4, filed 15 August 2006, with respect to claims 9-17 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 9-17 has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 9-17 are allowed.
5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As per claims 9, 10, 11, 14 and 15, the prior art of record has show that it is well known in the art for storing content data; setting a sequential number corresponding to the content data, the sequential number incremented by one when an operation is performed on the content data stored in the means for storing content data; calculating a hash value corresponding to the content data by performing a predetermined calculation; comparing a previously calculated value with the hash value of the content data calculated; and controlling reproduction of the content data based on the result of the comparison performed.

There are no teachings in the prior art of calculating a hash value corresponding to the content data by performing a predetermined calculation using at least a part of the management data associated with the content data and the sequential number. Since no teachings or motivation can be found for calculating a hash value corresponding to the content data by performing a predetermined calculation using at least a part of the management data associated with the content data and the sequential number, claims 9-17 are therefore novel and non-obvious..

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
